

Flight Disruptions – FAQs

1) Will all QR flights to/from Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the UAE, Kingdom of Bahrain and Egypt be cancelled?

Qatar Airways has suspended all flights to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, UAE, Kingdom of Bahrain and Egypt until further notice.

2) Will flights to Asia Pacific, Africa, Europe and the Americas be affected in any way?

No. Qatar Airways Cargo operations are running as normal with no disruptions to flights and cargo services, with the exception of those to the four countries Qatar Airways has been restricted to fly to.

3) Will my shipments transiting in Doha be affected?

No. Qatar Airways Cargo's terminal at Hamad International Airport, Doha is completely unaffected and operating as normal. Only shipments to and from the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Kingdom of Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and Egypt are embargoed. Customers in these countries may contact Qatar Airways Cargo's central Customer Service desk at +974 4423 5077 or email cargohelp@qatarairways.com.qa for further enquiries or assistance.

4) What will happen to my shipments booked to these affected countries?

If your shipment is already in Doha, it will be returned to the port where Qatar Airways Cargo received the consignment, free of charge, as a priority. If it has been tendered at origin but not yet flown to Doha, our local offices will work with you to make it quickly available for re-collection. Please contact your local Qatar Airways Cargo office for more information.
